

SNF

Volume 1, #4

SHANGHAI NOODLE FACTORY
THE UNOFFICIAL ORGAN OF BELL HIGH SCHOOL

10⁶ March 1973

In a Shanghai Noodle Factory
Place where I once used to be,
Nowhere, doing nothing.
People there were made of steel
Tiny cogs in one big wheel,
Turning, never learning.

Had to make a break,
Soon I had to wake up feeling stronger,
In my island of dreams
With impossible schemes.

*

(From "Shanghai Noodle Factory" by Steve Winwood)

EDITOR AT LARGE: Algernon "Lumberjack" Okonofee. EDITORS AT SMALL: The Bell High Jugband and Chorus On a Friday Night. EDITOR SOMEWHERE IN BETWEEN: M. Python. ACCOMPLICES: see page three. (Or page 8 if you're counting from the back.) SPECIAL THANKS TO: The Smoking Area Women's Auxillary.

WHAT LIES WITHIN (OUR BIGGEST ISSUE YET)

PAGE

- 1...You're looking at it, dummy.
- 2...Letters to The Editor (Only two, thank God.)
Three (Count 'em-three) Firebreathing Editorials
- 3...SNF Perversion Around the World
- 4...See for yourself what's on page 4.
- 5... " " " " " " 5.
- 6...Free form Crossword #2
- 7...Ad for yearbook. (Among other things.)
- 8...This is the Music Page.
- 9&10...Leftovers from pages one to 8.

SUPERPOAPST on the warpath. See page 2.

EDITORIALS

Letters

Dear SNF,

In regards to a letter in issue #3, I would like to state most explicitly that I am not a tit.

-SNF Editor.

Dear Editor,

Do you know where I could obtain a recording by Edwin and the Teddy Bears? I saw them at the school, and they were really neat-o.

-Greta Groupie.

Sorry, I dunno.-Ed.

TEACHERS SEEK REVENGE

A number of Bell teachers are out to get the blood of SNF staff members, thanks to a few DUMB TTTS who give copies of SNF to teachers, or leave them lying around classrooms. Thanks a lot, gang. If you want this paper to be stopped by the administration, then just keep up the good work.

A number of teachers have expressed discontent or interest in SNF. Mr. Poapst, for one, delivered a 15-minute oration in the library attacking the issue 2 editorial entitled "The Library Exposed". Miss Wilkinson has also been fighting back, with a number of displays: one called "A Tribute to Our Customers" including several references to the article, one of which pointed out that Dirk's Dog is not in the library. This book, which we mentioned as being a typical example of the many juvenile books in the library, is actually called Dirk's Dog Bello. We are sorry about the mistake, but the childish books in the library still remain, by whatever title.

Another display urges students to "Keep Informed" and contains such up-to-date publications as Life, which stopped publishing about three months back. The library will be exposed some more next issue.

SPIKE STRIKES AGAIN

Once again let us tip our hats to that lovable custodian of good, Spike Robillard.

A Bell student, with good marks, wished to change to Sir Robert Borden High School because he could no longer hack the bureaucratic idiocy of Bell. It was fine with that school. As soon as this student stopped going to classes at Bell, Spike sent a message to each of his teachers to strike his name off their class lists. At the same time, he refused to sign the student's release papers. In other words, he knew damn well he was making it very hard for the student to go to school, and deliberately went ahead and did it. Boy it sure is great to know we have a Vice-Principal ready to act in our best interests. So hats off to you, Mr. Spike Robillard.

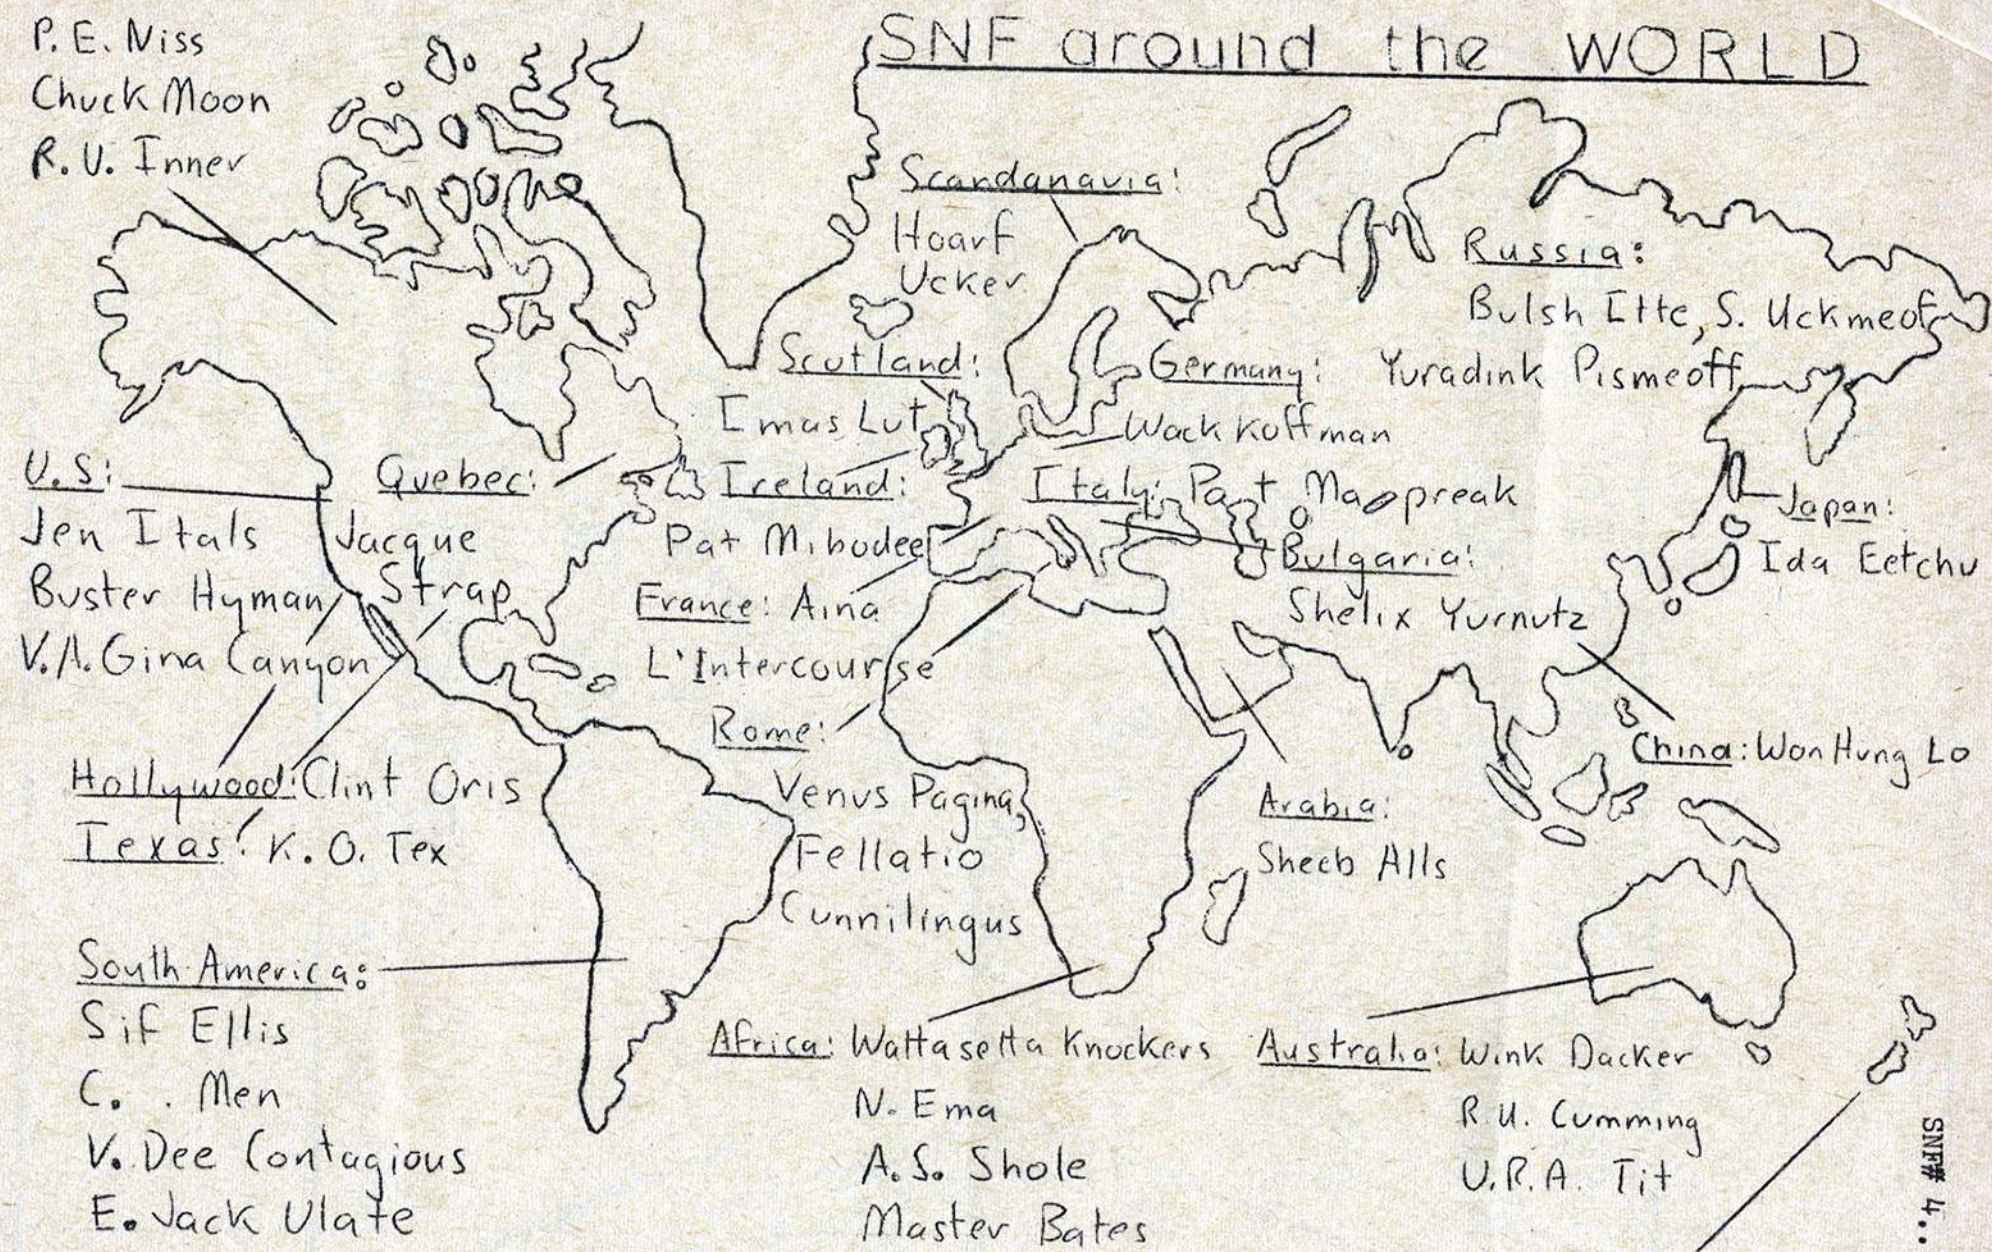

SNOW QUEEN

Who knows best who should be the Snow Queen of Bell High School? The people who see the contestants every day, talk to them, see them and know them as they really are, or some foreigners whose presence we resent, and who only see a mere glimpse of what they are like? The answer is that the boys of this school know best. Let us vote. Nevertheless, there was such a lovely collection of contestants this time, the judges could hardly do any wrong. Besides, Spirit Week as a whole was a tremendous success. Thanks and congratulations to all the people who organized the fun for us.

Canada:

P. E. Miss
Chuck Moon
R. U. Inner

SNF around the WORLD

(NIB: IF you don't see the point, think of sex and try again.)

HEAR YE HEAR YE, THIS IS A PROCLAMATION THAT

Shanghai Noodle
Factory

HEREBY ANNOUNCES A DECLARATION OF

WAR

ON THE

Library

March 10, Anno Domini 1973.

PLEASE READ:

(DAYS 4-8)

The following students please see Mr. Robillard today after home room.

Attila the Hun, Rex Merde, Pogo O'Possum, Bimbo the Wonder Frog, Obercest Grabunsnatch, and all other members of the SNF staff.

1. Grade 12 Do-It-Yourself Brain Surgery Classes, and Grade 13 Belchology classes are cancelled for today. Students are to go to library or study hall.
2. Job Opportunity for promiscuous young girl with big breasts. See ME in the Guidance Department.
3. Donations for Staff Drunk on Friday must be turned in at the office by noon today.
4. Here is a message to all teachers from Ace Baker: Fuck off, you bastards.
5. Official Bell High Hash Pipes and Roach Clips are onsale today at the ticket wicket. Smoke up and support your school.
6. There will be a meeting of the Boys' Farters Association in the main foyer washroom at 12:15 today.
7. Any student caught selling, buying or possessing copies of the alleged school paper, "Shanghai Noodle Factory" will be shot on sight.

PLEASE POST:

1. Support the Girls' basketball team...buy an official Bell Girls' Basketball Team dildo. Available in all sizes in the Tech wing girls' washroom.
2. Would the student who stole the entire encyclopedia section from the library please return the 109 volumes involved. No questions asked.
3. Ignore announcement three in the please post section.
4. Margie: We still love you. Please come back. -John and the kids.
5. Students are reminded that they must hand in their Optionalaryism Evaluation employment analysis forms today.
6. Hockey players will please return their empties today.
7. Intermural Chainfight today in the Student parking lot. Dogfuckers vs. the Shit-kickers.
8. This school will self-destruct at 2:00...

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8		9	10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24
25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36
	37	38	39	40	41	42
43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54
	55	56	57	58	59					60
61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72
73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80
81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88	89	90	91	92	93	94
95	96	97	98	99					100	101	102	103	104
	105	106	107	108	109	110	111	112	113	114
	115	116	117	118	119	120	121	122	123	124	125	126

FREE FORM CROSSWORD #2

DOWN

1. A nasty narcotic.
2. I cant't believe I...the whole thing.
3. Water Safety (Abbrev.)
4. King Biscuit Boy's initials.
5. Son of a Bitch (Abbrev.)
6. 25th and 7th letters of alphabet.
7. Mom's Apple...
8. Opposite of she.
9. Royal Military College (Abbrev)
10. Wishbone...
11. Do re me fa so..
16. Exclamation of ecstasy.
21.Upright and the Erections
22. United Artists (Abbrev)
38. Pandora's...
40. A common salutation.
41. Russian alcohol.
47. Past of "is"
53. 11th and 12th letters of alphabet.
57. ...Bell
61. Peace....
62. Yogi's sidekick.
66.Fucker
71. Nya. Nya. No clue for this one.
72. The....of March
73. Beer 25 cents.
84. The nastiest word you can think of.
90. Nickname for 1 down.
91. Person who consumes a lot of wine.
105. ...Cola
108. Letters k, and e.
111. Bullshit (Abbrev)

ACROSS

11. Bell student with camera.
5. A venereal disease (Abbrev)
9. The..Expeditions,
11. Two word proposition.
21. Bell boys are drunken....
25. Sorry gang. No hint.
28.Neff.
32. What's left at the end of a marijuana cigarette.
43. Fred Flintstone's pet.
47. Same as 91 down.
51. One... over the line.
57. German affirmative.
63. Sign in cafeteria,
78. The ... Couple
81. 84 down is one of these.
90. Past of "swear"
96. First tWO letters of bum.
100. TheTouch.
105. Another name for Spike.
111. A brand of pit-stop.
115. Slang for cocaine.
119. Watering hole on Preston.

CANDY IS DANDY

By Pamlet W. Tit and Bernie Pigfucker

One Extra Good day after leaving O Henry's house, Babe Ruth made his way through Denver. He chanced to walk by the park, and there, lo and behold was his Sweet Marie, (who was quite a Chunk of woman) at a Snac' Bar. She'd been hoping for some Black Balls, but accepted Babe's proposition nevertheless. Moving behind the bushes, several rounds of Snickers were heard. Though his lust made him a real Butterfingers, he soon found that beneath her blouse were not two mere Jelly Tots, but two real Treasures. Soon he was caressing her delicious Rosebuds.

He began to maneuver his way towards her Cherry Blossom. Suddenly he made contact and his Aero became a Hot Rod. She began to Munc' him and found that he had quite a jaw-breaker. Without hesitation, he pulled out a Lifesaver, and placing it on his Bazooka, commenced to WigWag and let loose his Nutmilk.

Hearing the Peanut Crunch, Big Turk walked up with his girlfriend, Mars. He asked "Have you gone so far as to lose you Virginia yet?" "Yes" squealed Sweet Marie delightedly, "And if we get two more people with real Pep, we could have a Bridge Mixture". However, they decided to Take 5 until continuing because Sweet Marie needed a rest before she could Eatmore.

LIMERICKS*PETE*

There was a young fellow named Pete
 Whose girl was a rare piece of meat,
 Her vagina so long,
 It took three lengths of his dong,
 His head, left arm, and both feet.

DAVE

There was a teenager named Dave,
 Who was so excessively brave,
 That he ripped all his meat off,
 Whilst trying to beat off,
 And doing so with chisel and lathe.

JANE

Jane was that inventor mystique
 Who created the dildo electric.
 But when inserted,
 The damn thing short circuited,
 And she couldn't walk for a week.

SMOKE

My friend used to buy himself smoke,
 And soon it turned into coke,
 As the habit grew worse,
 Said he "What a curse,
 I wish I'd ne'er taken a toke."

Editor's Note: If you are offended by some of the material herein, tough tit.

PAUL

For endowed with such delicate feeling,
 Paul's rod became long, stiff, and steaming.
 Much too large for the bore,
 He glued his girl to the floor,
 And himself ass end up to the ceiling.

JILL

I knew a young lady named Jill,
 Who claimed she needed no pill,
 Those who ventured to screw,
 Found her hole filled with glue,
 And the pricks are inside of her still.

MIKE

There was a young lad named Mike
 Who had an affair with a dyke.
 He stuck his pole
 Right into the hole,
 And plugged up the whole in the dike.

TED

There was a young fellow named Ted,
 Who had a small problem in bed.
 He came with such power,
 That the seminal shower
 Exploded vaginas to shreds.

-THE JONES BOYS-

There once were two brothers by the name of Jones, Kelly and Bob. One was married, and the other, single. The bachelor, Kelly, owned a delapidated boat. Strangely enough on the day that Bob's wife died, Kelly's boat sank. A kindly old lady saw Kelly on the street, and mistaking him for Bob, she said, "Oh Mr. Jones, I was so sorry to hear of your loss. You must feel terrible."

He replied, "Well, I'm not a bit sorry. She was a rotten thing right from the beginning. Her bottom was all chewed up and she smelled of old dead fish, and the first time I got into her she made water faster than anything I ever saw. She had a pretty big hole in the front where everybody could see. The hole kept getting bigger every time I used her. It got so that I could handle her all right, but anyone else who used her said she would leak like anything.

Last week three guys from the other side of town came down looking for a good time and asked me if I would rent her to them. Well, I warned them what she was like, but they took a chance on her anyway. The crazy fools all tried to get into her at once, and it was too much for her. She cracked right up the middle."

The old lady fainted.

When those good old days you start to miss,
 Open up a yearbook and reminisce.

$3.50 Hardcover, for only $1.00 down.

COMING TO OTTAWA

March 15, Tech, Jesse Winchester.
 March 21, Commerce, Gentle Giant.
 March 21, Nepean Sportsplex, Stampeders, and Bolt Upright and the Erections.
 March 25, NAC, Duke Ellington.
 March 30, Civic Centre, Wishbone Ash, Viregar
Joe, and Hockfoot.
 April 19, NAC, Buddy Rich.
 April 28-31, Carleton, Manchild. (Oberon)
 Coming to the NAC: The Mahavishnu Orchestra.
 Coming to Le Hibou: Steve Goodman, Taj
Mahal, Ray Materick, and Valdy, Dave Bradstreet
 And don't forget, April 12, Bell Coffeehouse with all Bell talent: Peter Ruddy, Leigh and Lynn Carroll, Jim Layeux, and Edwin without the Teddy Bears, among others.
 May 21, Civic Center, Jethro Tull

RECORD REVIEWS

David Rea: By the Grace of God
 Rea is yet another fine Canadian folk singer. This is his second album, after Maverick Child, his first, on Polydor. This one is one of the nine records issued to date on the all Canadian excellent, label, True
 North, which also handles Bruce Cockburn,
 Murray McLauchlan, Luke Gibson, and Syrinx.
 Rea's style is lighthearted, and leaning towards rock. He is ably assisted by all the members of Mountain, Mike Seeger, and Dino Danelli, ex of the Rascals, and now with Bulldog. Overall it is a fine, funny album.

Traffic: Shootout in the Fantasy Factory
 One this album, Steve Winwood and company further explore the possibilities of jazz-rock, and they do it with sheer excellence.
 Jim Gordon (now with the Mothers) and Rick Grech have left, but this has not hurt the group at all. If you like jazz-rock, get this album and/or The Low Spark of High-Heeled Boys and/or John Barleycorn Must Die.

CONCERT REVIEWS

CHEECH AND CHONG

Since most of the people at this show were the kind of hard-core Cheech and Chong fanatics who can recite, without a flaw, any of the duo's skits, all the team really had to do was appear on the stage to please them. But fortunately, they did more.

 With ingenious use of a few props and lighting effects, they ran through changed and shortened or lengthened versions of their album material, as well as doing some new material. The new material was really enjoyable, as we hadn't heard it before. It's somewhat silly to pay several bucks to see something that is better on record.
 But C&C realized this problem, and gave us a thoroughly funny and entertaining show, if somewhat gross.

JOHN PRINE AND THE GOOD BROTHERS

Prine may well turn out to be the Dylan of the 70's, as evidenced by his superb concert at Glebe on February 24.
 In simple, rowdy, or quiet songs, Prine captures with his words all the human vices, pains, natures, and truths. He is extremely fun to see, as he is usually pissed, (as indeed he was at Commerce) and quite the grub. Someday John Prine will be the counterculture hero that Dylan was.

But let us not forget the Good Bros., an excellent Canadian folk group based on the three Good brothers. They play modern bluegrass folk, complete with fiddle, autoharp, banjo, and mandolin.
 They play goodtime music, they have a good time, and so will you!

KEVIN GILLES

Except for the fact that Students'
 Council lost money on this venture, it was a perfect show. The Bell talent that played was good (especially Leigh Carroll) but they came nowhere near the folk virtuoso Kevin Gilles, with his "band" Glen Brown on guitars.

Gilles has been playing locally
 a long time, and from the Bell concert it was evident that he should make it big very soon. Not only were the songs excellent, but Gilles tells entertaining stories, and it is obvious that he and Brown delight in what they are doing.
 Here's hoping for more concerts as good as the Kevin Gilles coffeehouse.

ALICE COOPER

This paper refuses to acknowledge the existence of Alice Cooper as a musical group.

OTTAWA TV.

SURFACES

If you can wade through the abysses of mindless excrement being broadcast these days, (eg: Lawrence Welk, Partridge Family, Doris Day, The Courtship of Eddy's Father etc.) you will find there is actually some good entertainment on the boob tube.

Nostalgia

Those shows we grew up on are being rerun. Man From Uncle is on weekdays at 5 on channel 13, Star Trek at the same time on channel 5, and Get Smart is on channel 4 at 5:30. Star Trek is also on Saturday morn. on channel 11 at 11 and channel 12 at 12. If the memory of the Flintstones is close to you, they're on again too.

Cable 3

The cablevision service channel has some good shows, including Sex and Life, Wine Women, and Jazz, disc jockey Gary Michaels, A Toast to the Winemaker, (for all you winos), and a few others.

Drama

Two shows of interest here, CTV's Story Theatre, which is fairy tales re-enacted, and CBC's Program X, which features plays for the '70s, usually Canadian.

Movies

The only two exceptional movie shows are Fright Night Theatre on Tuesdays at midnight on channel 4, and Bain's Cinema on Sundays at 5:30 on channel 13. The former features thoroughly terrible and funny horror movies. Recent titles have included Reptilicus, Atragon, Godzilla vs. the Thing, and Destroy All Planets. Bane's (spelt wrong) Cinema has very good and relatively recent movies.

Music

Here we have:

- Monday 7:30 Channels 13, 12, Rollin' (Rock)
- Tuesday 9:30 Channels 13, 12, Ian Tyson (Country and rock)
- Thursday 7:00 Channel 11, Bandwagon (jazz, pop)
- Thursday 6:00 Channel 3, Wine, Women, and Jazz
- Friday 1:00 AM Channel 5, Midnight Special (rock and pop)

Saturday, 5:00 Channel 13, Musical 9.

Friends (rock and pop)

There are also occasional rock shows on the French stations.

Comedy

There are a number of programs worthy of note here. There's those three shows of pure Americana, Maude, Sanford and Son, and All in the Family. M*A*S*H and Clochmerle are also reasonably intelligent.

But the best news of all for TV haters is the joyous return of the show that is the greatest on TV for many people's money. THE FANTASTIC HILARIOUS INCREDIBLE MONTY PYTHON'S FLYING CIRCUS!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Yipeeeeeeee!!! This insane British show has also spawned a movie, a book, 5 records, and a travelling troupe, soon to visit Ottawa. After much coaxing, the CBC has bought 13 more episodes of the show (they dropped it before a year back) to start

May 25. Thanks to a cult of fanatic fans, the CBC has brought this show back. Unless you are extremely odd or extremely stupid, this will become your favorite show, if you're not already a member of the Python cult.

Other Shows of Interest

Sesame St., Alice Alouette and Review are all good shows on CBC. And don't forget The Brady Bunch, everybody.

THE REX MERDE DELIGHT

a gourmet sandwich that anyone can make

But the last thing you would expect to find in SNF would be a recipe, eh? Well, that's our secret. We're always one step ahead of our readers. What you need: White bread, butter, any cheese that melts good, tomatoes, pickles, and ham or bologna. And, oh yes, some white wine.

What you do: Butter your bread and pan fry it until it is golden brown. Then place it in a tray suitable for the oven. First pour some wine over the bread. Then put sliced pickles on. Then some more wine. Then some tomato slices, the bologna or ham, then some sliced hunks of cheese (mozzarella and swiss are both good.) Then grind some pepper over the top, and some more wine, if you like. Put it all in a 475 degree oven till nicely melted. Then eat it, chef. Goes fine with beer.

BLACKMAIL!

Friends, has your best friend stolen your woman? Has someone done something rotten to you that must be avenged? Well, SNF has the perfect way to get the SOB back. For a minimal fee, we will plaster his or her name all over the front page of SNF and indicate that he is responsible for all the subversive pornography and libel. Now, sooner or later, some teacher will see it, and then your ex-friend will be screwed royally. So if you've been burned, remember SNF.

Results guaranteed.....A nice graduation gift.

PUN OF THE WEEK

PENUS: A person who plays the keyboard.

SNF BOOK OF POETRY

Yes, folks, we got all sorts of neat merchandise this week. For starters, the SNF book of poetry, with poems and artwork by Bell students will be out in April or May, retailing for about 25 cents. Other possibilities include the SNF Unofficial Yearbook, The SNF Guide to Ottawa Watering Holes, Massage and Strip Joints, Pool Halls and Houses of Ill Repute, and the SNF Book of Caricatures, and a collection of plays by Simon Neil.

Also, we got SNF t-shirts for only $3.00, available in small, medium, large, and extra large. Order now or you'll be kicking yourself in the ass when you see everybody else wearing one.

And remember, if you want to advertise, SNF is the place. A full page for 5 bucks, $\frac{1}{2}$ for 3, $\frac{1}{4}$ for 2, one eighth for one dollar, and want ads, ten cents a line.

THANKS AND A HAT TIP TO: Kathy Rose, who made the largest student contribution to date towards Shanghai Noodle Factory, of 25 cents. Incidentally, our China correspondent, Won Hung Low, informs us that Shanghai is now the largest city in the world. Keep up the good work, Won.

An interesting idea was brought up this winter by some gents who found that they some times had nothing to do after the hockey games on Fridays. The idea they came up with still can work on dull Fridays during the rest of the year.

The idea is to rent a bus to go from the school to the Prescott, or some other suitable establishment early in the evening, and to come back around midnight. The cost of $45 could be covered by 45 people at $1 each. It isn't really a bad deal-fifty cents each way, and who wants to risk their lives driving under the influence. People would be left to their own devices to get to and from the school, unless the bus will make stops at that price. If you are interested in buses to the Prescott, let SNF know, and we'll pass it on.

RADIO ADDENDA

There is one program we forgot in our "Ottawa Radio Surfaces" article of issue#2. It is:

Showcase '73

This is a series featuring concerts recorded live at summer festivals across the country, including some at Camp Fortune during the CBC Summer Festival. The show is on Friday nights at 11 on CBC-FM, which is 103.3 on the FM dial. Many excellent performers in the jazz, folk, and rock fields appear, and most of them are Canadians. Past shows have included such artists as: Bruce Cockburn, David Wiffen, The Perth County Conspiracy, Ray Charles, Freddie Hubbard, Les McCann, Lionel Hampton, and many others.

Shop at Paul's Supermarket at Bedale and Carling, in Crystal Beach.

COMING NEXT ISSUE

- The Music to "Shanghai Noodle Factory"
- Some serious poems.
- The library exposed some more.
- Another play by Simon Neil.
- An Inquiry into the identities of SNF staff.